Dear Baldy:

I read with great interest the report of your recent visit and thank you for being so helpful in this connection.

I gather in reading between the lines that the persons with whom you visited were not particularly anxious to give you information with regard to the nature of their banking system. This follows the general pattern as most of our efforts in this direction have not yielded much. Maybe, after all, they are not too proud of it.

Sincerely,

/s/
